Legislative Updates

SB 348: Revises the types of emergency transportation vehicle services provided to Medicare-eligible persons for which Medicaid shall pay deductibles and coinsurance.

Passed Health Policy on February 4th!

SB 56: Ensures condominium owners are informed of assessment changes enacted by their associations and helps reduce late-fees caused by inconsistent delivery of assessments. Passed Regulated Industries on January 26th!

SB 58: Repeals a provision relating to reporting community benefit expenses for property tax exemption purposes.

Passed Community Affairs on January 26th!

SB 352: Updates terminology of Massage Therapy to specify that it is a health care practice. Also clarifies that it does not fall into same classification as personal services. Medicaid shall pay deductibles and coinsurance.

Passed Health Policy on February 4th!

Proud to have been selected to chair Finance and Tax for the next two years alongside a strong team of Senators.

Eager to work together on bills that will benefit our great state.

Enjoyed meeting with Representative Jim Mooney to discuss issues and exchange ideas relating to SD 39 and HD 120 so that together we can best represent the Florida Keys and South Dade.
